EVENT

When buffet and sophisticated table culture meet

Brilliant ideas are always simple.

The EVENT buffet collection impresses by virtue of its intelligent mix of innovative design, pure aesthetics and perfectly shaped functionality. Extraordinary flexibility characterises this new range, which understands the buffet of today as a natural component of superior table setting.

Award-winning designer Carsten Gollnick has focussed on the conception and design of high-quality products and product systems in the areas of table setting and lifestyle accessories. Functionality and formal aesthetics are the fundamental qualities of his designs.

Carsten Gollnick

Through the design combination of diverse basic shapes, unusual formats and highquality materials, each EVENT item is a highlight in its own right, which matches the other elements to create perfect combinations.

New banquet setting

EVENT is much more than just a buffet collection. EVENT creates a perfect link between the modern buffet and sophisticated table culture. The por- harmonious entity.

celain from which the guest takes food from the buffet is the same as on the dining table, creating a wonderfully This ingenious collection enables you to adapt your banquet individually, according to the occasion and the number of guests you have.

The day can begin

With buffets in particular, it is important to present the various culinary delights in an attractive fashion, as well as making the guest's access to the buffet table as easy and inviting as possible.

A nice breakfast represents a successful start to the day ahead. Multifunctional platters, plates and dishes are suitable for cold as well as hot meals and snacks. Practical wooden platforms serve as presentation elements for jams and marmalade as well as for cereals and dairy products. All items are available in various sizes. You can select the size that meets your requirements.

Please take your seats!

The set table holds what the buffet promises. The platters and plates, whose shapes speak a clear as well as unusual language, create unique table scenarios.

The mix of shapes and materials lend the table a varied, natural and at the same time elegant look. In combination the various items join together to create a stylish and exciting impression.

International culinary culture

Whether sushi, tapas or other delicacies from all over the world... with the numerous design opportunities provided by EVENT you can present all the various culinary delights in a form that is true to their country of origin.

Thus, the smallest platter becomes a chopstick server, the basket becomes a seafood platter, and the vinegar-and-oil bottle holds the soy sauce.

The things of which buffet dreams are made

The mix of the different materials wood, glass, basket weave, stainless steel and porcelain give a special look to your table. Your guests will be surprised again and again!

The multifunctionality of EVENT guarantees that the different items are suitable for presentation and serving as well as for dining.

Make a combination!

Four matching platters draped around a square-shaped plate create an interesting presentation of your culinary skills, and eight tapas spoons pass on your greetings from the kitchen. Use the bread basket for a change as a presentation surface for your Caribbean creations, or ...!

Designed from the basis of a fundamental square and circular form, all items match each other in shape. Used on their own, they give your table a distinguished new look.

Have fun creating different combinations!

The discovery of versatility

The individual articles in the EVENT⁺ range are true quick-change artists. The new porcelain tray makes it possible to present food perfectly whether it is used as a cruet-stand, as an actual tray or as a food platter. The perfectly-shaped shakers for salt & pepper and the holder for toothpicks, together with the wine decanter and the sugar-stick holder, can also be presented in various roles.

Perfectly shaped variety

Combine shapes, colours and decorations! See for yourself how easy it is to create original table decorations that are both varied and at the same time exceptionally harmonious.

DECORATIVE IMPRESSIONS

Variations to your heart's delight

The various decorations of EVENT are just as stylish and minimalist as the shape. Choose between warm earth tones, delicate line decorations and a relief decoration that effectively accentuate the rims of plates and thus stress the particular square form of the eating areas.
